COGNITIVE DISTORTIONS/ THINKING ERRORS

In Chapters 17-20, Harry shows flexibility in his thinking. His thoughts are not so black and white and he is more open to alternative ways of thinking. Was Harry capable of this at the beginning of the book?

How have cognitive distortions/thinking errors negatively impacted other characters in the book?

|  |
|------|
|  |
|      |
|      |
|  |
|  |
|      |
|  |
|  |
|      |
|  |
|  |
|  |
|      |