LOOKS CAN BE DECEIVING

In Chapters 17-20, we learn that information from earlier in the book was not quite what it seemed.

What does this tell us about the importance of facts, rather than just relying on our thoughts and feelings when drawing conclusions? Discuss.