MANAGING POTENTIAL FEARS

Harry overhears Mr. and Mrs. Weasley having a heated argument about whether they should tell Harry that Sirius Black has:

a. escaped from Azkaban prison, and

b. is intending to find and kill Harry

What rationale does Harry use to manage his potential fear about Sirius Black? Why do you think that Harry is able to see things so rationally at this point in the book?